

Modernization of Traditional Medicine

Duration	Apr 8 ~23, 2010 (15 days)
Participants	20 persons
Objectives	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To provide comprehensive understanding on theory, policy, educational system, and R&D of Traditional Korean Medicine (TKM)• To contribute to the settlement of future strategies to improve national policy and medical services on traditional medicines of participating countries• To elicit inter-countries' collaboration plans to develop traditional medicines of participating countries.
Contents	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Lectures<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Healthcare System in South Korea & Introduction to TKM- Establishment Process of TKM Policy and its Future- Current Status and Prospects of TKM R&D- R&D on Korean Acupuncture, Herbal Medicines Development, and Constitutional Diagnosis- Eastern and Western Medical Collaboration- Present Conditions of Public Health Programme using TKM• Group discussion and presentation on country report and wrap-up session<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Introduction to national policy and current status of participants' traditional medicine- Introduction to international collaboration of participants' traditional medicines• Field trips & study visits<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Local Clinics and Univ. Hospital of TKM- Okcheon Medicinal Plant Research Station- Korean Traditional Mart of Herbs (Seoul Kyugdong Market)- Commaul (Flower Village) Gyeongju Oriental Hospital Program
Qualifications of Applicants	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Participants should:<ul style="list-style-type: none">- Be senior government officials or staffs or related government agencies in charge of public health or/and traditional medicine and policy making of healthcare- Be clinical practitioners or researchers of public health or/and traditional medicine and policy making of healthcare- Have bachelor's degree and more than three years of experience in this field- Have sufficient commands of both spoken and written English- Not have any experience of previous participation in KOICA's training program or anything similar before, or at least 10 years should have elapsed since their previous participating of KOICA's program

Closing Date for Application

March 11, 2010

Training Organization

Korea Institute of Oriental Medicine

<http://www.kiom.re.kr>